REF ZAS
PREFACE

In 1979 A South African bibliography to the year 1925 (SABIB), compiled under the auspices of the South African Library, was published in four volumes by Mansell of London. It was essentially a revision and continuation of Sidney Mendelssohn's South African bibliography (London, 1910), which recorded literature about South Africa from earliest times to 1909, regardless of place of publication. For the new bibliography the period was extended to 1925, but for practical reasons the scope was limited to the geographical area south of the Limpopo, and certain material, for example books in African languages, sheet music, maps and periodicals, was excluded.

Approximately 7000 Mendelssohn entries which fell within the redefined scope were included in SABIB, together with the combined holdings of 29 South African libraries, making a total of approximately 50 000 entries (of which about one third are cross references). Yet during the twelve years since publication the constant stream of 'not in SABIB' publications has shown how far the Bibliography is from being complete. The South African Library, with the co-operation of some of the original contributing libraries, has maintained a file on cards of additional SABIB material, and felt that the time had come to publish a supplement to SABIB. It was decided to broaden the base in several ways: by inviting not only libraries but also private collectors and Africana booksellers to contribute bibliographical records of unique publications in their collections, by including far more of the type of publications often dismissed in the past as 'ephemera', and by including titles taken from reviews, advertisements, catalogues, etc. even if copies were not traced. The Supplement contains 3086 entries and approximately 1380 cross references.

The Library wishes to express its appreciation to those libraries, private collectors and booksellers who co-operated so readily, and to Mrs F.J. Kaufmann who catalogued the SABIB material in the collection of Mr R.E. Levitt of Durban for this bibliography.

The Supplement was compiled by Miss F. Rossouw with the assistance of Miss E.A. Vockerodt, both of the South African Library, and we thank them for their dedicated and meticulous work.

VOORWOORD

'n Suid-Afrikaanse bibliografie tot die jaar 1925 (SABIB), saamgestel onder toesig van die Suid-Afrikaanse Biblioteek, is in 1979 in 4 volumes deur Mansell in Londen uitgegee. In wese is dit 'n hersiening van en byvoegsel tot Sidney Mendelssohn se South African bibliography (Londen, 1910) waarin publikasies oor Suid-Afrika van die vroegste tye tot 1909, ongeag plek van uitgawe, opgeteken is. Vir die nuwe bibliografie is die periode tot 1925 verleng, maar weens praktiese redes is die geografiese gebied tot suid van die Limpopo beperk, en sekere soorte materiaal, bv. boeke in Afrikatale, bladmusiek, kaarte en tydskrifte, is uitgesluit.

Ongeveer 7000 opgawes in Mendelssohn se bibliografie, wat binne die bestek van die hersiene omvangsperke val, is in SABIB opgeneem, tesame met die gekombineerde besit van 29 Suid-Afrikaanse biblioteke; in totaal ongeveer 50 000 opgawes (waarvan sowat een-derde kruisverwysings is). Nietemin, 'n konstante stroom van 'nie-in-SABIB'-publikasies gedurende die afgelope twaalf jaar wys hoe ver van volledig die Bibliografie is. Die Suid-Afrikaanse Biblioteek het van die begin af 'n lêer van SABIB-materiaal op kaarte bygehou, met voortgesette bydraes van sommige van die oorspronklike medewerkende biblioteke, en ag die tyd nou ryp om 'n supplement op SABIB uit te gee. Daar is besluit om die basis op verskillende maniere te verbreed: deur nie slegs biblioteke nie, maar ook private versamelaars en Africana-boekhandelaars te vra om opgawes van unieke items in hulle versamelings te verskaf, deur veel meer van die sogenaamde 'ephemera'—dikwels in die verlede verontagsaam—in te sluit, en deur titels uit resensies, advertensies, katalogusse, ens. op te neem, selfs al is geen eksemplare opgespoor nie. Die Supplement bevat 3086 opgawes en ongeveer 1380 kruisverwysings.

Die Biblioteek wil graag sy waardering betuig aan dié biblioteke, private versamelaars en boekhandelaars wat so geredelik saamgewerk het, en aan mev F.J. Kaufmann wat die SABIB-materiaal in die versameling van mnr R.E. Levitt, Durban, vir hierdie bibliografie gekatalogiseer het.

Die Supplement is saamgestel deur mej. F. Rossouw, bygestaan deur mej. E.A. Vockerodt, albei van die Suid-Afrikaanse Biblioteek. Ons bedank hulle vir hulle toegewyde en deeglike werk.
